PLEASE NOTE: The Itinerary –Journey into White Lion Leadership (Global White Lion Protection Trust –Specific Terms)

This itinerary is not set in stone; it may change depending on the weather, the people and most importantly, the animals. This unique White Lion monitoring experience is not open to the public. It is offered as an authentic eco-educational and inspirational opportunity. Please observe that there are strict safety and security protocols in place regarding the reintroduction of the White Lions. The scientific monitoring vehicles do not intrude on the White Lions' space, and the GWLPT ensure that we keep our voices as low as possible when approaching them in the wild. Contact with the White Lions is a non-photographic experience and we avoid taking cameras, or other photographic and electronic equipment into their environment. Instead, guests are invited to enter into the magic of their natural existence and share its timeless beauty. Magnificent photographic studies of the White Lions and other mementos are available. 100% of proceeds of the GWLPT go directly to the protection of the White Lions in their natural habitat.

Timbavati lies within the malaria zone, the risk is small and mostly present during the wet summer months (October through April). It should still be addressed, however, and it is advised to wear mosquito repellent containing at least 20% DEET and take anti-malarials. In addition, there are vaccinations that you should get when travelling to South Africa and Timbavati.

You will be required to sign a separate indemnity form which the Global White Lion Protection Trust will give you on arrival.

Children Visitors

Children are permitted to journey with us on the adventure on the following conditions:

1. Top Speaker Events & the parents are prepared to take full responsibility and sign indemnities absolving the GWLPT of any liability
2. If there are any incidents on the vehicles during lion checks which could potentially put their lives and the lives of others at risk, the lion check will be terminated immediately and the child will not be allowed to attend another lion check for the duration of their visit. This will require that an adult is required to stay behind with them.
3. All guests are made aware that children will be attending when they book on this event and not when they arrive in South Africa.

You are responsible for booking and paying for your international airfare to get to and from South Africa. Please make sure you arrive at our departure from Johannesburg in good time.

You are responsible for obtaining the appropriate visa based upon your own nationality and point of entry. Information on how to obtain the requirement permit can be found on your government travel websites.

Start Date

You are responsible for arriving in Johannesburg, South Africa the day before the event starts, so that we can meet and join the organized transport prior to departure to Timbavati. The Adventure organizers cannot be held responsible for your late arrival nor the impact this may have on your ability to get to Timbavati at the scheduled arrival time and date.

The Adventure Donation includes all land transport, airport transfers within the destination of the adventure, accommodation as stated in the itinerary (or similar), breakfast, lunch and dinner as stated in the itinerary, excursions and entry into sites, trainer and experts delivering the content of the course material.

This should follow internationally recommended advice for travel to Johannesburg and the Timbavati area, regardless of the locations and destinations stated in the itinerary. It should still be addressed, however, and it is advised to wear mosquito repellent containing at least 20% DEET and take anti-malarials. In addition, there are vaccinations that you should get when travelling to South Africa and Timbavati.

We cannot guarantee any wheelchair assistance at all destinations. The Adventure organizer reserves the right to decline any Adventure participant whose condition, in our opinion, may affect the health, safety or enjoyment of other participants. Additionally, should an Adventure participant require or request medical attention during the trip, such attention will be provided by locally available health care officials and at locally available facilities. In such Adventures, the Adventure organizers will not be responsible for health service costs incurred nor the quality of medical care or medical services rendered.
